

Catalogue 14 M.

"Sentinel" Steam Waggon

"Standard" 6-ton Waggon
10 tons with a Trailer

"Overtyp" 5-ton Waggon
8 tons with a Trailer

Alley & MacLellan, Ltd.

*Manufacturing Engineers,
Contractors to H. M. Navy, War Dept., H. M. Customs Dept., H. M. Office of Works, and to many Foreign Governments.*

Head Office, "Sentinel" Works, Palmadie, GLASGOW.

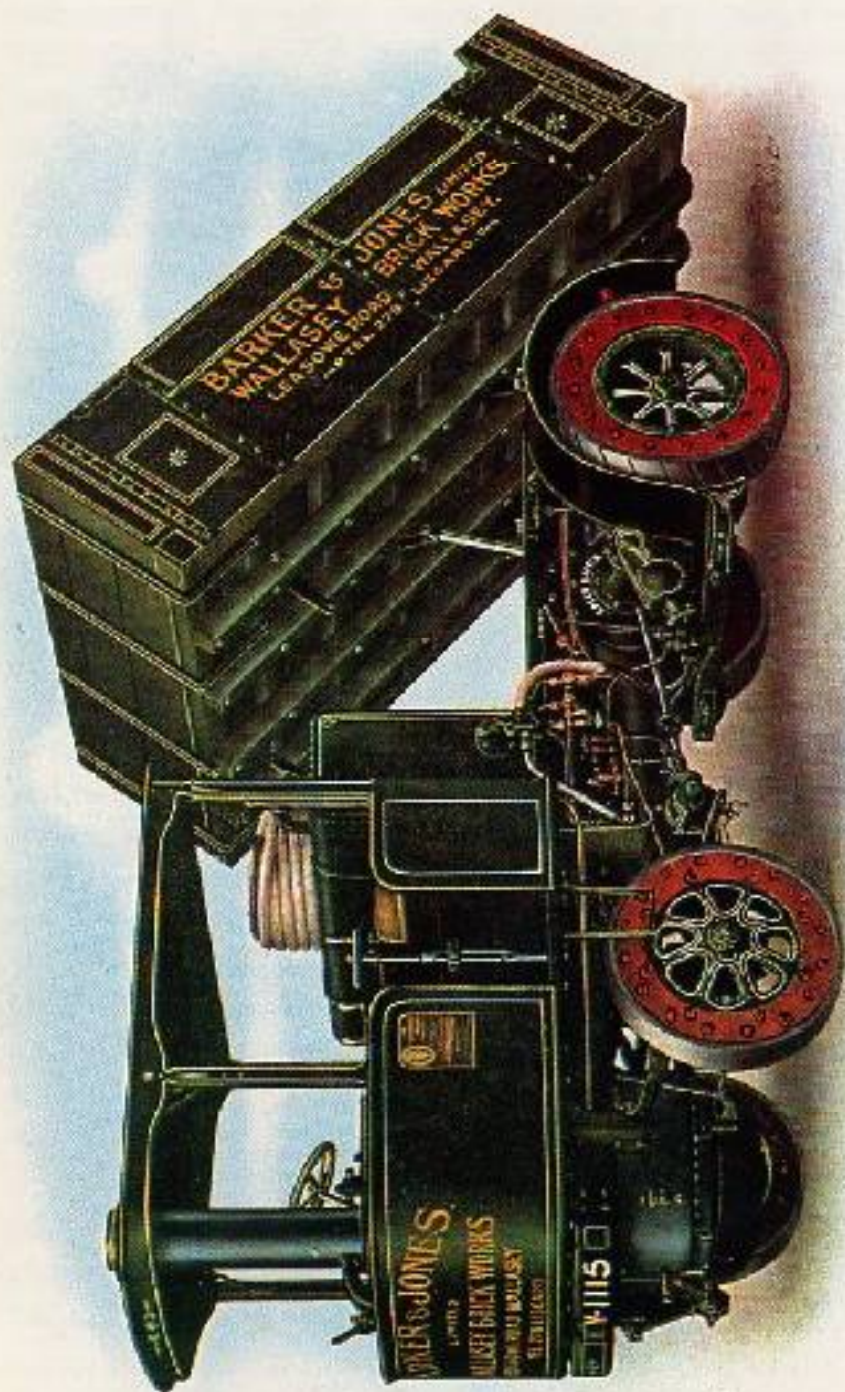

Sole Agencies in London, Liverpool, Manchester, Newcastle, Birmingham,
Sheffield, Cardiff, and in most of the Colonies and in Foreign Countries.

Printed by J. & J. G. Bell, Ltd., Glasgow.

 Alley & MacLellan, Ltd., Engineers, Glasgow

I n d e x

	Pages
Advantages of Steam Waggon	8-10
Bodies, The "Sentinel" Patent	20-22
Bodies	45
Brakes and Controls	50
Business Terms	69
Cost of Horse Haulage	6-8
Cost of Steam Waggon Haulage	9
Cab and Platform	46-48
Control Gear	50
Engine, The "Sentinel" Patent	24-26
Front Axle and Steering Gear	43-44
Frame, Cab and Platform	46-48
Hydraulic Tipping Gear	58
Hints to Users	80-81
Heavy Motor Car Order, 1904 (abridged)	82
On Motor Waggon	12-14
"Overtyping Sentinel" Waggon	66
Opinions of "Sentinel" Users	84-87
Prices and Code Words	68
Railways, "Sentinel" Waggon costs cheaper than	10
Rear Axle and Differential Gear	30
Road Wheels, The "Sentinel" Patent	38-40
Rubber Tyres	41, 54 & 71
Special "Sentinel" Features	4
Steering Gear, The "Sentinel" Patent	42-44
Shipping Specifications	74-75
Transmission Gear	28
Tipping Waggon	56-58
Tar-spraying Waggon	60
Where Motor Waggon May	6-10
Work done by "Sentinel" Waggon	6
Water Sprinkling Waggon	64

Standard Sentinel 11 Waggon with End-Tipping Body to carry 5 tons.

Photograph shows special Body for Brickmakers' work.