

The Humber Ferries

by Alun A. D'Orley

BOUGHT ON BOARD
P.S. LINCOLN CASTLE
LAST OPERATING
COAL-BURNING
PADDLE STEAMER
IN BRITAIN

THE HUMBER FERRIES

by

ALUN A. D'ORLEY

JUNE, 1968

PUBLISHED BY NIDD VALLEY NARROW GAUGE RAILWAYS LTD.
CRAG LANE                      KNARESBOROUGH                      YORKSHIRE

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS AND SOURCES

THE AUTHOR would like to thank the people listed below for their valuable help and also to acknowledge the use of information contained in the various newspapers and publications mentioned.

G. W. Parker, Goxhill G. C. Andrew, Barrow-on-Humber
 J. Martin, Barrow-on-Humber A. F. Batchelor, Brigg
 M. Gorbett, Hull College of Education Grimsby Public Libraries Hull Museums and their publications Hull
 Daily Mail The Barton Star The Lincolnshire Star
 The Illustrated London News Hull Trinity House Department of Geography, Nottingham University British Railways
 The National Maritime Museum, Greenwich The Stamford
 Mercury The Eastern Morning News The Hull Advertiser
 Lincoln, Rutland and Stamford Mercury Hull Portfolio
 The Great Central Railway, by George Dow The North
 Eastern Railway, by W. W. Tomlinson Railway and Other
 Steamers, by Duckworth and Langmuir A History of Hedon, 1894 Tickels History of Hull, 1796 The Geographical Dictionary, J. Cooke, 1759 Roman Yorkshire, by F. R. Pearson
 History of Welton, by T. Thompson Battles Directory of Hull and Beverley, 1791 A Tour Through England and Wales, by Daniel Defoe Cases and Opinions, 1811 The Yorkshire
 Archaeological Society The Public Record Office The Royal, National and Commercial Directory and Topography,
 1840 Gazetteer and Directory of Lincolnshire, W. White, 1856
 Census of England and Wales, 1851 The Commercial Directory and Gazetteer of Lincolnshire, 1863 Kelly's Directory of Lincolnshire, 1855.

LIST OF PLATES

- Plate 1* Barton Ferry, an engraving published in 1801 (Hull Daily Mail)
Plate 2 New Holland Ferry, an engraving published c. 1843 (G. W. Parker, Goxhill)
Plate 3 The Old Harbour, Hull, from a painting by John Ward (Hull Museums)
Plate 4 James Acland, from an oil painting (Hull Museums)
Plate 5 Two early steamers, off Victoria Pier, from an oil painting (Hull Museums)
Plate 6 New Holland Pier, April 1848 (Illustrated London News)
Plate 7 An old poster; an attempt to revive Barton Ferry (Author's collection)
Plate 8 M.S. & L. Rly. P.S. 'Manchester' 1849 (Illustrated London News)
Plate 9 Victoria Pier with G.C.Rly. P.S. 'Liverpool' (Valentine's, Dundee)
Plate 10 Left: P.S. 'Empress' from Goole; right: P.S. 'Her Majesty' from Ferriby Sluice, at Victoria Pier (J. Martin, Barrow-on-Humber)
Plate 11 G.C.Rly. P.S. 'Grimsby' and P.S. 'Cleethorpes' at New Holland Pier (Grimsby Public Library)
Plate 12 G.C.Rly. P.S. 'Killingholme' being renamed 'Queen Mary' for the opening of Immingham Dock (G. W. Parker, Goxhill)
Plate 13 'Killingholme' conveying the Royal Party at the opening of Immingham Dock.
Plate 14 'Killingholme' in ordinary service, backing away from the Pier at New Holland (Grimsby Public Library)
Plate 15 'Her Majesty' or 'Isle of Axholme' at Ferriby Sluice, c. 1911 (G. C. Andrew, Barrow-on-Humber)
Plate 16 'Her Majesty' at Ferriby Sluice, 1906 (G. C. Andrew)
Plate 17 L to R: Steam barge 'Swift', 'Her Majesty', and 'Empress' at Ferriby Sluice (G. W. Parker, Goxhill)
Plate 18 P.S. 'Lady Elizabeth' on her way down river to be fitted out for her journey across the Atlantic (J. Martin, Barrow-on-Humber)
Plate 19 G.C.Rly. P.S. 'Grimsby'
Plate 20 'Grimsby' lying derelict in the early 1920's (Grimsby Public Library)
Plate 21 'Magna Charta' lying derelict in the early 1920's (Grimsby Public Library)
Plate 22 'Tattershall Castle', 1934 (British Railways)
Plate 23 'Tattershall Castle', about 1954; note radar equipment (British Railways)
Plate 24 'Lincoln Castle' in new B.R. colours, leaving New Holland (British Railways)
Plate 25 The proposed Humber Bridge, from a drawing by Frank A. Weemys (Hull Daily Mail)
Folding Map: The Humber estuary and associated waterways, showing main cross-river ferry routes and adjacent railways.